The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of students' educational records. The law establishes certain rights for students regarding the privacy of their educational record. In accordance with FERPA, it is UM Housing's policy to withhold certain educational records unless the student provides consent to disclose information.

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the UM Housing Office at the University of Montana to release/discuss the specified educational records and information. This release does not permit the disclosure of these records to any other persons or entities without my written consent or as permitted by law.
